

LISS POST

A majestic dragon has been found in Oak!

A stunning baby dragon has been found at Liss Junior School. The caretaker found it on the roof. He roared “what an earth is this?”

Miss Wilson stated “this is an incredible find as dragons were extinct thousands of years ago!!”

We know that this baby is going to grow too big for this school. He wants to live with his mum in the mountains. We need help finding her!

